Keep Columbia Safe to Sponsor Crime & Safety Forum with City Council Candidates

COLUMBIA, Mo.—Keep Columbia Safe will sponsor a Columbia City Council candidate forum Wednesday, Feb. 16 at 6:30 p.m. at the Boone Electric Cooperative community room, 1413 Rangeline St. The forum will focus on the issues of crime and safety in our community.

Morning radio talk show host Tom Bradley will moderate the event.

First Ward candidates Darrell Foster, Pam Forbes, Mitch Richards and Fred Schmidt, and Fifth Ward candidates Helen Anthony and Glen Ehrhardt have confirmed their participation.

The community room is located on the north side of the building.

Keep Columbia Safe is a grass-roots effort comprised of citizens concerned about the issues of crime and safety, and supporting effective law enforcement in our community. Its website has become a clearinghouse for information about crime and safety issues, and how residents can support effective law enforcement in our community.
